

Tour nº 4 – Lisbon Drainage General Plan (EN)

During this tour it will be possible to visit some construction sites supporting the Lisbon Drainage Tunnel work and associated interventions. Below is a figure of the anti-pollution Basin project.

This plan aims to protect the town of Lisbon for potential inundations in the future and prepare it for the next century. The riverside area of Santa Apolónia will be also recovered and modernized.

